Headline:
Dry and mild days, cloudy at times with sunny interludes.

Today:
Any fog patches may linger into the morning, but eventually clear to leave a largely dry day. Cloudier in the north with the odd patch of light drizzle at times. Sunny spells further south and feeling mild in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy this evening with some clear spells overnight. Low cloud and fog patches are likely to develop. A touch of frost under any clear skies. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Sunday:
Fog and low cloud will slowly clear during the morning to leave another dry day with some sunny intervals. Rather mild with overnight fog patches possible. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Dry on Monday and Tuesday with sunny intervals and patchy cloud. Outbreaks of rain on Wednesday. Mild by day, but colder into the night with overnight frosts and fog patches.
